§ 521.1 Employment of apprentices at subminimum wages.

The Administrator or his authorized representative, to the extent necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, shall issue special certificates to employers or joint apprenticeship committees¹ authorizing the employment of apprentices in skilled trades at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed in this part.

§ 521.2 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) Apprentice means a worker at least sixteen years of age, except where a higher minimum age standard is otherwise fixed by law, who is employed to learn a skilled trade as defined in § 521.4, and in conformity with or substantial conformity with the standards of apprenticeship as set forth in § 521.3.

¹An individual employer participating in an apprenticeship program under the control and supervision of a joint apprenticeship committee may employ an apprentice under a temporary or special certificate issued to or held by such joint apprenticeship committee. However, it is the responsibility of the employer, and not of the joint apprenticeship committee, that such employment be in compliance with the regulations and with the certificate.
